Summary of reasons
for classification:

The DVD Drawing Blood is classified as:

Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The DVD contains a feature that is identical to that previously examined as a DVD in 2001 by the Office of Film and Literature Classification. The DVD Drawing Blood (OFLC No. 100308) was classified as objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years, with the descriptive note "Contains violence, offensive language and sex scenes". This decision was registered on 18 April 2001.

The DVD has a number of additional components. These take the form of deleted scenes, bloopers and short humorous segments relating to Troma studios, the makers of the feature. There are also two notices and two audio commentaries on the feature, as well as a series of production stills and a piece on director Sergio Lapel's storyboarding of the feature. While the additional components are numerous, they do not provide grounds to alter the classification given to the original publication.
